

Christmas in Scarborough

Due to the popularity of Scarborough and the Esplanade Hotel with our passengers we are more than pleased to be including this tour in our Christmas Programme. Set on Yorkshire's beautiful coastline and famous for its magnificent seascapes, the town has been a well known holiday resort since the 17th century. There is a charming old town with many narrow streets, theatres, restaurants and sea front cafes selling their traditional Cockles and Mussels. With the North York Moors as its backdrop setting for Television and Film makers alike, Scarborough is the perfect place to enjoy a typically English Christmas holiday full of good old fashioned fun.
