Due to public demand we are delighted to be returning to Söll for this years' Christmas Holiday. Why not come along with us and combine the Austrian and English Yuletide traditions, with truly excellent food, fine wines and congenial company, in a magnificent setting surrounded by wonderful mountain scenery. If its snow you want then in the past we have been blessed with oodles of the stuff at this resort (of course there is no guarantee). What better way to spend Christmas than with a torch lit walk in the crisp, mountain air? Take a romantic sleigh ride through breathtaking scenery or browse for hand made souvenirs amongst the stalls of a local Christmas Market, all topped off, of course, with a traditional feast on the 25th. The Tyrol is Austria's most popular winter playground and the spectacular scenery is at its best when covered by its blanket of snow. Söll is situated in a wind sheltered valley between the majestic mountains of the Wilder Kaiser and the High Salve and is the perfect setting for a Yuletide holiday.
