Snowbound on the Arosa Express

Fast becoming one of our most popular early breaks and much requested is the opportunity to travel on a Swiss train during the winter period, to that end we are pleased to offer the famous "Arosa Express". As slow as a tram, the Arosa Express saunters through Chur, passing the city wall, the city is behind us and you are on a different track, crossing the city's boundary as the bright blue Arosa Express becomes a mountain railway meandering through the wild Schanfigger Valley and upwards to Arosa, high in the Alps. Feldkirch itself has a beautiful medieval town centre with towers, gateways, the Schaffenburg Castle and Cathedral as well as a host of shops, bars and cafes.
