

Marvellous Mystery Tour

After the roaring success of our past Mystery tours we are pleased to offer further dates for this brochure. Why not join us on this fun concept with Elcock Holidays and escape for a few days at an excellent rate. No hassle driving, just pack a suitcase and we'll take off for a complete break. Not bothered where you go? Good, because you won't have a clue where you are going until you get there. Even the driver won't know until the morning of departure when he is handed his tour envelope. He will have five minutes to check his routes and then off you go. No one will know where you are (unless you decide to phone and tell them!) and for whatever reason you want to get away, you will be able to please yourself for five whole days! Go on, pick up the phone, this might be just the tonic you need!

MYSTERY HOTELS ★★★

All Hotels used on this type of tour will be up to our normal standard, by not booking the accommodation until about 14 days before the holiday departs. This means that we can gain from the excellent reputation we have built up over the years with the hotel trade. Knowing that we will provide good numbers of clients, hoteliers are able to provide us with last minute accommodation at less than the normal price. All Bedrooms have minimum Private Facilities, Colour Television, Radio and Tea/Coffee Making Facilities. Some Hotels Have Lifts.

Highland House Party

The Scottish Highlands are a huge draw for those wanting spectacular scenery, it's a vast area and so little populated that you can drive for miles before seeing habitation. The scenery has something for everyone - lochs, mountains, beaches, coast and lots of small settlements where Scottish and Gaelic culture is still very much alive. Much of the Highlands of Scotland is off the beaten tourist track and provides you with endless opportunities to explore some of the last wildernesses in Britain. Situated on the North East Coast of Scotland, Lossiemouth is favoured by the mild Gulf Stream air, with miles of excellent beaches and beautiful surrounding countryside.
