The Way We Were

Are you fed up with the hustle and bustle of modern life, do you remember the days before e-mails, satellite television and microwave dinners, then why not join us for a few days where we can remember the way we were. A time when people talked without "texting", music hall was popular and families enjoyed a good old sing song around the roaring fire. Our base for this break is Criccieth, known as the "Pearl of Wales on the Shores of Snowdonia", this lovely, unspoiled, historic little town lies directly on the coast looking south across Cardigan Bay, with the Cambrian Mountains as the backdrop.

THE LION HOTEL, CRICCIETH ★★★ (WTB) 01766 522460

Dating from 1731 the Hotel has been tastefully developed into the Hotel it is today offering a unique personal service of friendliness, comfort and true hospitality. There is a restaurant in which you can enjoy a selection of freshly prepared local produce, or maybe relax with friends in the lounge or cocktail bars. The Hotel Has a Lift. All Bedrooms have Private Facilities, Colour Television, Telephone, Radio, Hairdryer and Tea/Coffee Making Facilities.
