Blackpool, along with its surrounding towns and villages has so much to offer its local residents as well as the twelve million or so people who visit each year. Blackpool has long been established as a premier holiday destination, resting on the west coast of Lancashire, on the Irish Sea, originally it began its life as a hamlet. Over the years its popularity grew from strength to strength until it became the popular resort we see today. Full of traditional seaside fun for all the family, Blackpool has it all, with an endless stretch of sand, a famous tower and one of the best roller coaster theme parks in the country. Our Blackpool Breaks will both be staying at the Grand Blackpool Imperial Hotel, you just chose which theme you would prefer.
